

International Community Achievement Award (ICAA) UBC's Okanagan Campus 2017/2018

The International Community Achievement Award recognizes international students who contribute to our campus and community while maintaining strong academic standing. The International Student Initiative (ISI) generously contributes the funding for these awards.

Eligibility

To be eligible, the student must be an international undergraduate who will be returning to UBC's Okanagan Campus in September 2017, academically strong, with a demonstrated ability in one or more of the following areas: artistic endeavours, community service, athletic pursuits, original intellectual work, cross cultural relations, promotion of diversity, or other campus activities.

Amount

The award is a tuition reduction of $1500.00 (Cdn) for each of the September 2017 and January 2018 terms (total $3000 tuition reduction).

How to apply

To apply, please fill out the Nomination Form with your information and why you believe you are an ideal candidate to receive this award. Once you have completed your rationale, please secure 3 referees, with two of those preferably from professors. Other referees, for example, can be UBC staff, on or off-campus employers, or supervisors with whom you volunteer. Your referees must fill out the "Referee Rationale" section of the nomination form and need to outline the reasons for their nomination. Once your referees have completed this section, they will need to send the entire form, in confidence, to ips.ubco@ubc.ca no later than May 21st, 2017.

Review Selection

The review panel is made up of professors from various faculties, a representative from the International Student Initiative portfolio, and an International and Program Services staff member. Recipients will be notified by email and will receive a signed certificate.

Checklist - prior to sending Nomination Form to referees, please ensure you have:

- Filled in your Student Information
- Completed the Student Rationale Section (why do you believe you are an ideal candidate to receive this award?)
